Artisanal Tour of Cinque Terre & Beyond

September 16–23, 2026

September 16 | Arrival and check-in

Welcome to Italy! Arrival and settling in at Angiolina's Farm, located in the peaceful Ligurian countryside between Levanto and the Cinque Terre.

Enjoy a welcome dinner featuring a live pesto-making demonstration by a local chef — a simple, rustic meal prepared with traditional flavors. The evening comes alive with the delicate strains of Giulia's live violin music, performed with grace and artistry.

September 17 | Hand, flavors and the gulf of poets start your day with breakfast at boutique farm at the gateway to the Cinque Terre villages, then head to a hidden cinque terre coastal gem. Join a hands-on ceramic workshop with a local artisan, creating your own clay masterpieces.

Enjoy a fresh, homemade lunch by the sea.

In the afternoon, sail the gulf of poets at sunset with local wines and specialties. Return inspired, relaxed, and full of unforgettable memories.

September 18 | Cinque Terre villages & vineyards

Wake up to a relaxed breakfast before heading to levanto train station, the gateway to the cinque terre's colorful villages and breathtaking cliffs.

Wander hidden alleys, discover pastel homes, and soak in views that feel straight out of a painting with your local guide.

Pause for a heartfelt lunch at a local trattoria, then climb to a sun-soaked vineyard where a passionate winemaker shares his story and his wines. Taste local flavors, toast to the view, and let the magic of Liguria fill your soul before returning to your cozy retreat.

September 19 | Ancient Genoa: a journey through art, history, and flavors

Begin your day at the stunning Staglieno Cemetery, an open-air museum of extraordinary sculptures.

Enjoy lunch in a grand Genoese palace, then explore the city's medieval "carrugi" with a private guide. Along the way, taste traditional Ligurian sweets and local delicacies. Return to your accommodation inspired by Genoa's art, history, and authentic flavors.

September 20 | The Ligurian mosaic: charm and colors from Chiavari to Portofino

Explore Chiavari with a passionate local guide, wandering historic alleys, artisan workshops, and traditional food shops. Savor Farinata, a golden chickpea pancake, in a charming trattoria.

In the afternoon, visit the pastel-hued village of Santa Margherita Ligure and enjoy a panoramic boat ride to the iconic Portofino harbor.

September 21 | Artisan for a day in Pietrasanta

Head to Pietrasanta, the "City of Artists," and explore its cobbled streets and charming piazzas with a local guide.

Enjoy a delicious Tuscan lunch before diving into a hands-on marble workshop, learning basic sculpting techniques and creating your own Carrara marble keepsake.

September 22 | Sea, art & soul: an immersive journey in Camogli

Today, explore the colorful harbor of Camogli and create your own Gyo-taku fish print under the guidance of a local artist. Gyo-taku is a traditional Japanese art form that captures and preserves the fleeting beauty of marine life through the technique of fish printing.

Enjoy a Ligurian aperitif, visit Nadia's atelier (sanctuary of creativity), and savor freshly baked cheese focaccia.

End the day with a scenic seaside dinner as the sun sets over the sea. Return to your accommodation inspired, with memories of art, culture, and coastal magic.
